

Puget Sound Interfaith Youth Camp

August 23-28, 2009 • Camp Seymour
(45 minutes from Tacoma)

FUN · RESPECT · FRIENDSHIPS

Seeking camper applications from girls and boys entering the 7th – 9th grades from Christian, Jewish, Muslim and other faith traditions. Camper and Staff applications online at www.soundinterfaithcamp.org or phone 360.357.7224

With the goal of a more peaceful and just world, the camp:

- offers a safe place for youth from a variety of faith and religious perspectives to be themselves,
- provides lots of fun and engaging activities in a beautiful natural setting, and
- helps children discover more about their common humanity.

Organizers hope that campers' growing understanding of each other's world views will result in greater respect, appreciation, empathy and compassion.

A collaboration of representatives from or members of: Associated Ministries (Tacoma), Interfaith Works (Olympia), Masjid Al-Nur (Olympia), People for Peace Justice & Healing (Tacoma), Temple Beth El (Tacoma), YMCA Camp Seymour (Est. 1905. American Camp Association accredited).
